

This week in Caterpillars Class

This week we made birdfeeders, we talked about what ingredients we were using in the feeders and we also talked about what birds need to eat to give them energy.

We used feathers to paint and create colourful peacock pictures.

We enjoyed our roleplay area this week 'Caterpillars Café' we made tea, coffee and hot chocolate, we also made Paw Patrol cakes and helped to mix the ingredients.

We learnt some new words using the bird finger gym.

Next Week in Caterpillars Class

Story Telling Week

We will read, Each Peach Pear Plum and make a salt dough peach, pear and plum pie. We will learn to recognise and write the letter P.

Chinese New Year

We will have a try at writing our names in Mandarin and we will make Chinese biscuits.

This week in Ladybirds Class.....

We made birdfeeders and helped to mix all the ingredients together.

For literacy we read 'Billy Goats Gruff' and we had fun acting out the goats trip trapping over the bridge. We also practised writing our names.

Messy play this week, we made tea and coffee, mixing and stirring, we also used shaving foam to make cupcakes.

Roleplay— Ladybirds Doctors Surgery was open, we had fun caring for our friends.

Next Week in Ladybird's Class

We will be drawing self portraits using a mirror to look at our features, we will be making fruit kebabs and duck pancakes. For Story Telling week, we will talk about our favourite stories and act them out.
